M 122	Continued From page 1 06/30/2024. The notice indicated the biennial report and license fee were due to the department by 05/31/2024. On 06/06/2024, the department sent a second notice to Licensee A by email, indicating the biennial report and license fee were past due. The notice indicated if the biennial report and license fee were not received by 07/30/2024, the Division of Quality Assurance will proceed with enforcement action, which may include license revocation. On 06/06/2024, the department received a confirmation of delivery. On 06/06/2024, the department sent a third notice to Licensee A by certified letter, indicating the biennial report and license fee were past due. The notice indicated if the biennial report and license fee were not received by 07/30/2024, the Division of Quality Assurance will proceed with enforcement action, which may include license revocation. On 06/11/2024, the department received a confirmation of delivery. On 06/10/2024, at 9:47 AM, a department representative interviewed Licensee A to inquire about the status of the biennial report and fee. Licensee A confirmed receipt of the notice and stated no residents were living at the facility, but they planned on renewing the license. On 10/10/2024, Surveyor reviewed department records and found no evidence a biennial report and license fees were received from the provider. The license expired on 06/30/2024.	M 122
